

I object to the screening of a highly biased political display just before the election by Sinclair Broadcasting. The public airways should reflect both sides, unless clearly labelled as opinion.